AMUSEMENTS TO NIGHT. CANTERBURY.—The last opportunity of witnessing the play of the "Bushwhackers of the Potomac," is at hand, and the crowds who have witnessed it can testify how well it was produced. The rest of the company will also appear in a bill replete with fun, and as is usual on Saturday night, the house will no doubt be crowded. SANFORD'S TROUPS of minstrels, combined with that of Dick Parker, continues to give delightful entertainments at Grover's theater. "The Exempts," the black letter version of "Romeo and Juliet," "The Rival Lovers," and numerous other acts are announced for to-night.

AN OUTRAGBOUS CASE OF BIGAMY .- Yesterday afternoon a man named Michael Owens. alias John West, was taken before Justice Clayton to answer a charge of bigamy preferred against him by a rather intelligent and pretty looking Irish woman now residing in Portland, Maine. The statement of the woman was to the effect that Owens and she were united in marriage in 1857 in Ireland, that shortly after the marriage they emigrated to New York, where a short time afterwards Owens deserted her, and she subsequently gave birth to a child of which he was the father. The child has since died, but Owens never did a thing for it or towards its support. For nearly five years the wife has not heard of her husband, he having enlisted in the U.S. army in this city under the name of John West. After his time expired he still remained here. A warrant was placed in the hands of detectives Clarvoe and McDevitt, and on Thursday they arrested Owens in Alexandria, where he was living with his wife No. 2-Annie McNamara—to whom he was married in 1963. Owens was brought to this city and committed to jail for a hearing yesterday afternoon, when both his wives appeared. The hearing was, however, further postponed; but from conversation between the parties in the justice's of-fice we learned the foregoing and following

It appears that Owens became acquainted with Anna McNamara, and, representing himself as a single man, he induced her to marry him. The issue of this marriage was one child, which was born last Monday, and which the mother had with her. Mrs. Owens No. 2 is a fine-looking, intelligent girl, evidently having some degree of education, and she appeared to be almost heart-broken at her situation. She stated that she was not aware her husband was a married man until the day of his arrest. This was corroborated by Owens himself, who acknowledged that he had deceived her and done her a great wrong; and he did not deny that he had been married twice, but excused himself by saying he believed his first wife dead, as he had not heard from her in the last five years. The second wife, while she upbraided Owens with his perfidy, did not seem to desire his punishment, but advised him to go with his first and only wife, and do justly by her, and she hoped God would forgive him as freely as she did. She said she did not claim him at all, although until within a day or two ago she supposed he was her lawful husband, and she trusted her friends would have charity enough to see that she had committed no wilful crime in living with Owens. There was present at the Justices office yesterday also a man named Gilmartin who was upbraided for the part he had taken in the matter. It appears he was aware of the fact that Owens was a married man and yet he stood by and saw him wedded to Annie McNamara. and represented that Owens was a single man; thus becoming a party to the outrage. When accused of this, Gilmartin did not, deny the fact, but excused the act by arguing that both he and Owens being soldiers in the U.S. service, it virtually divorced them from their wives as no one but the United States could have any claim upon them. He said he believed this and therefore he allowed the second marriage to go on as he believed Owens was a Owens was recommitted for a further hear-

AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN.—The town is remarkably dull; very little, comparatively, doing even in the immediate vicinity of the market place. Trade by the canal is completely suspended, no boats arriving or departing. Although there is no serious damage done to the embankments, culverts, &c., there are obstructions in the canal which, it is supposed, will require some days to remove, and regular business along the entire route will not be resumed until the 1st of August. A number of boats laden with coal were burned by the rebels, and the ruins and sunken coal must be removed. The country trade by the roads is very light; but this will be resumed in the coming week. At least there is a hope of resumption. The suspension of active business is telt by all Georgetown merchants, but falls most heavily upon the coal companies, whose reliance for supplies is upon the Chesapeake and Ohio canal. TRUSTRES OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- A special meeting of the Trustees of Public Schools was held yesterday at the City Hall, Mayor Wallach in the chair. The bill of Sandy Diggs, for whitewashing,

$46, and of Robert Adams, for lime, $20, were ordered to be paid. Mr. Miller, from the committee on text books. made a report adding Gray's Lessons and Manual of Botany and Davies' University Arithmetic to the list of text books. The committee also recommend that Bullion's Analytical and Practical Grammar be stricken from the list, and that Kerl's System be used exclusively. The report was adopted. Dr. Waish stated that the committee on examination of teachers would report at the next meeting; and, on motion of Mr. Miller, the election was postponed until that time.

On motion of Mr. Wight, the committee on accounts was directed to prepare the annual estimates for the schools and transmit the same to the Councils by Monday evening next. Mr. Tustin presented the application of Miss Appa Haliday for a teachership. Referred. The board then adjourned until Friday, July

A SWAMPOODLE FIGHT .- Last night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, as Jehn Wright was going to his home in Swampoodle, he was attacked and beaten by three persons, who he recognised as Daniel O'Brien. James McCann and Michael Hill. Mr. Wright appeared this morning before Justice Giberson, to have a warrant issued for the arrest of the parties, and his face and body were evidence of the fact that he had been very severely handled by somebody.
